“CCD Biennial”
A Faculty Exhibition from the Community College of Denver on Auraria Campus
January 16-31, 2007

Denver – Emmanuel Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of “CCD Biennial,” our first exhibition of the new-year. The show will feature works from the faculty of the Community College of Denver. “CCD Biennial” opens to the public on Tuesday, January 16th and will run through January 31, 2007. Please join us on January 18th from 4-7 to celebrate with a reception for the artists, the CCD community and the supportive public. It’s always free and always lots of fun.

Included in the show are works from Michael Burrows, Bill Amundson, Chuck Parson, Lincoln Philips, John Kjos, Rie Speer and Bill Henning.

There will also be an informal artists talk on January 25 from 10:30-11:45am. This is a perfect opportunity to see the work by the artist speaking, ask questions, and meet current students and faculty at this important institution on Auraria Campus.

Gallery hours are Tuesday – Friday, 10:00am-6:00pm and Saturdays, 11:00am-5:00pm. Visitor parking is available at the Tivoli Center. The gallery is located in the heart of campus on the main square.
