CCD Annual Juried Student Art Exhibition
November 8-29, 2007
(Closed the week of Thanksgiving)

Denver- Emmanuel Gallery

This year's annual CCD Annual Juried Student Art Show will be juried by Daniel Salazar and Lawrence Dunn, both of Denver, Colorado. Mr. Salazar is a fine artist working in film, video and photography and co-founder of impossible artz, an organization that provides media arts production, publishing, distribution and marketing. Mr. Dunn is graphic designer and associate for Monigle Associates Inc, a corporate identity and branding firm.

The juror's will select this years exciting exhibition from hundreds of entries from students enrolled at the Community College of Denver on Auraria Campus. This annual event will include all disciplines from dedicated art students. Student exhibitions are the lifeblood of this campus community and always generate a lively conversation on current art issues and styles. An opening reception for the artists will be from 4-7 on November 8. We will have an award ceremony at 5:15pm. Join Emmanuel Gallery, the students and their families for what is always an engaging show.

Emmanuel Gallery is free and open to the public Tuesday–Friday 10 am–6 pm, Saturday 11 am–5 pm. For further information, please call 303-556-8337.
