Metro Biennial:
Metropolitan State College of Denver Faculty Exhibition
September 19-29, 2006

Denver – Emmanuel Gallery is pleased to announce our first exhibition of the fall season. Metro Biennial: Metropolitan State College of Denver Faculty Exhibition will open Tuesday, September 19th including a reception for the artists starting at 4:00. The gallery and reception are free and open to the public. The exhibition will run through September 29. Join us as we celebrate the dynamic talents at MSCD.

Included in Metro Biennial are old friends such as painting professor Carlos Fresquez who is making new piece for the show and was recently featured so prominently in “Decades of Influence: Colorado 1985-Present” at MCA and CVA. Also exhibiting will be painting professor Amy Metier courtesy of William Havu Gallery. The show will also introduce the work of new staff members such as sculpture professor Richard Eisen and Cinthea Fiss, visiting assistant professor of photography.

Emmanuel Gallery showcases the talents of each of the three school’s art departments on Auraria Campus with an exhibition schedule that rotates each semester. These exhibitions prove vital to the education and sharing process of the community on campus as well as the local art scene. So many of the artists in this exhibition are represented professionally by galleries in and around Denver as well as sharing their talents with the young artists they teach.

Emmanuel Gallery is open Tuesday through Friday, 10-6 and Saturday, 11-5. For more information please visit our website or call Shannon Corrigan at 303-556-8337.
